Invitation

We are pleased to invite your organization to participate in the first international cynological conference Cyno2010, under the auspices of Federacion Canina Internacional Perros de Pura Raza. The conference will be held in Warsaw on 30-31 January 2010.

The organizer, Polski Klub Psa Rasowego, is an association uniting dog breeders in Poland, registered in January 2001, a member of the Federacion Canina Internacional.

The main aim of the conference is the mutual acquaintance of various national canine organizations, exchange of experience and establishment of cooperation – mutual recognition of pedigrees and titles, participation in dog shows, competitions and other canine events as well as common activities concerning the development of canine science and animal protection.

The event will be held with the cooperation of the Polish Association of Zoopsychologists, the Polish Association of Trainers and the Polish Association of Zoophysiotherapists.

The conference will include lectures on subjects concerning breeding, proper selection, care, zoopsychology, training and health of purebred dogs as well as topics concerning law regulations regarding dog breeding and activities of canine organizations in European Community and worldwide.

The programme will include, among others:

The pronouncement of the representative of F.C.I. Perros de Pura Raza,

The presentation of the canine organizations taking part in the conference and lectures on, among others:

Maria Eugenia Ribelles Ferrer “Unfair competition among canine associations versus compliance with the rules of the European Community”

Marcin Wierzba “Training the dog for a good citizen according to the Natural Method”

Joanna Kosińska “Happy dog = safe dog”

Małgorzata Kizerwetter “The use of physiotherapy in treatment of dogs”

Maria Eugenia Ribelles Ferrer “Modern grooming”

Conference proceeds in four languages (polish, english, german, russian)

Opening of the conference – 9.00 h

The first day of the conference will be completed with a ceremonial supper reception.
