MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The world of pedigree dog breeding continues to stand at a crossroads. The challenges we face today are not isolated incidents but part of a broader movement that has the potential to shape the future of our activity worldwide. As history has shown, trends in legislation, social attitudes, and public narratives do not remain confined to one continent—they travel, evolve, and eventually impact us all.

In 2024, anti-breeding propaganda remained a persistent challenge, testing the resilience and unity of our National Canine Organisations. What we witness today in Europe will undoubtedly influence other regions in the coming years. Our collective responsibility is to stay ahead, be prepared, and ensure that the truth about pedigree dog breeding is defended and communicated effectively.

A crucial milestone of this year was the progress of a new EU-level legislation on dog and cat welfare. Such regulations, once enacted, will inevitably affect our work—not only in Europe but across the globe. The FCI did not stand idle. We actively engaged in diplomatic efforts, ensuring that the voices of our National Canine Organisations and the expertise of the FCI Scientific Commission were considered in shaping official reactions. Strengthening our connections with the relevant EU Commission representatives was not just a necessity but a strategic move that will serve as the foundation for future dialogues and advocacy.

In line with our commitment to science-based and responsible dog breeding, we took a significant step forward by joining the "Choose Health" roundtable at the end of the year. This coalition, which brings together animal welfare organisations and EU decision-makers, marks a significant opportunity to ensure that canine health and breeding discussions include factual, well-researched perspectives rather than emotionally driven narratives.

Looking ahead, our mission remains clear. The events of this year have reinforced the need for both collective efforts and individual initiatives at the national level. Engaging with decision-makers, emphasizing the importance and benefits of our work, and ensuring that legislation is guided by expertise rather than misconception are priorities that we must all embrace.

Unity, knowledge, and determination will define our success. Our passion for pedigree dogs is not just a personal pursuit—it is a commitment to society, responsible breeding, and preserving history and tradition. We must stand firm in our mission, prepared for what lies ahead.

Thank you to all National Canine Organisations, our partners, the FCI General Committee, and every individual dedicated to preserving and promoting pedigree dog breeding—your work matters, now more than ever.

Dr Tamás Jakkel
President of the FCI

MISSION STATEMENT

Introduction

Established in 1911, the FCI includes 98 Members and Contract Partners (one member per country). Each Member issues their own pedigrees and train highly-qualified judges. The FCI makes sure that the pedigrees and judges are mutually recognised by all the FCI members, Contract Partners and any person involved in their domestic canine scene.

In accordance with the celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the Fédération Cynologique Internationale, the FCI General Committee reviewed its Mission, Vision Statement and Values to maintain the Association's leadership worldwide.

In 2018, further to the decision of the FCI Extraordinary General Assembly, FCI's Mission, Vision Statements and Values were revised as follows:

Mission and Vision statement

The FCI is the highest authority of the canine culture and supports, via its Members and Contract Partners, the well-being of pedigree dogs worldwide as well as their selective breeding and generational registrations.

The FCI is responsible for safeguarding pedigree dogs' health and international pedigree dog activities to enhance the relations between dogs and humans.

The FCI recognises that the following principles and professional responsibilities are fundamental for the well-being of all pedigree dogs worldwide:

Values

- a/ The FCI considers pedigree dogs' health, temperament and behaviour of utmost importance in Breed Standards.
- b/ The FCI promotes pedigree dogs' activities and sports worldwide, which it considers beneficial for the pedigree dogs.
- c/ The FCI entrusts its commissions to make recommendations about other important matters.
- d/ The FCI divides geographically the world of pedigree dogs through its three (3) sections.
- e/ The FCI trusts its Members and Contract Partners to protect the integrity of their National Registries.
- f/ The FCI recognises and respects agreements with non-member national organisations.
- g/ The FCI sets the highest standards for its Head Office.
- h/ The FCI ensures the regular celebration of World and Section Championship events.

Introduction

La FCI a été fondée en 1911 et compte 98 Membres et Partenaires sous Contrat (un membre par pays). Chaque Membre émet ses propres pedigrees et forme des juges de manifestations canines hautement qualifiés. La FCI garantit la reconnaissance des pedigrees et des juges par tous ses Membres, Partenaires sous Contrat, ainsi que par toute personne active sur leur scène canine nationale.

Dans le cadre du 100e anniversaire de la Fédération Cynologique Internationale, le Comité Général de la FCI a revu la Déclaration de Mission et de Vision, et les Valeurs afin de maintenir la position de leader mondial de l'Association.

En 2018, à la suite de la décision de l'Assemblée Générale Extraordinaire de la FCI, la Déclaration de Mission et de Vision, et les Valeurs de la FCI ont été revues comme suit :

Déclaration de Mission et de Vision

La FCI est la plus haute autorité cynophile et elle soutient, par l'intermédiaire de ses Membres et Partenaires sous contrat, le bien-être de tous les chiens avec pedigree dans le monde entier ainsi que leur reproduction sélective et les enregistrements généalogiques.

La FCI est responsable de la préservation de la santé des chiens avec pedigree et des activités internationales impliquant des chiens avec pedigree, dont le but est de promouvoir les relations entre le chien et l'Homme.

La FCI reconnaît que les principes suivants et les responsabilités professionnelles sont fondamentaux pour le bien-être de tous les chiens avec pedigree dans le monde entier :

Valeurs

- a/ La FCI considère que la santé, le caractère et le comportement des chiens avec pedigree revêtent une importance capitale dans les standards de races.
- b/ La FCI soutient, dans le monde, les activités canines et les disciplines canines sportives pour les chiens avec pedigree, qu'elle considère bénéfiques pour ces derniers.
- c/ La FCI charge ses commissions d'émettre des recommandations sur d'autres thèmes importants.
- d/ La FCI divise le monde des chiens avec pedigree en trois (3) sections géographiques.
- e/ La FCI exprime toute sa confiance dans la capacité de ses Membres et Partenaires sous contrat à se porter garants de l'intégrité de leurs livres des origines.
- f/ La FCI respecte et reconnaît les accords qui ont été conclus avec des organisations nationales non-Membres.
- g/ La FCI établit des normes de la plus haute qualité pour son Siège social.
- h/ La FCI veille à l'organisation régulière de championnats du monde et de section.

Introducción

La FCI fue fundada en 1911 y cuenta con 98 Miembros y Socios contratantes (un miembro por cada país). Cada Miembro expide sus propios pedigrís y forma jueces altamente cualificados. La FCI se asegura de que todos los Miembros, Socios contratantes y personas que en cada país se dedican al mundo del perro reconozcan y acepten los pedigrís y los jueces en el seno de la FCI.

En el marco del 100º aniversario de la Fédération Cynologique Internationale, el Comité General de la FCI revisó su Declaración de Misión y Visión, así como los Valores de la FCI, con el fin de mantener la posición de liderazgo mundial de la Asociación.

En 2018, a raíz de la decisión de la Asamblea General Extraordinaria de la FCI, la Declaración de Misión y Visión, y los Valores de la FCI han sido modificados :

Declaración de Misión y Visión

La FCI es la mayor autoridad para la cinofilia; apoya, con la ayuda de sus Miembros y Socios contratantes, el bienestar de todos los perros con pedigrí del mundo, así como su reproducción selectiva y los registros genealógicos.

La FCI es responsable de la conservación de la salud de los perros con pedigrí y de las actividades internacionales que impliquen perros con pedigrí, cuyo objetivo sea fomentar las relaciones entre el perro y el hombre.

La FCI reconoce que los principios a continuación y las responsabilidades profesionales son fundamentales para el bienestar de todos los perros con pedigrí del mundo :

Valores

- a/ La FCI considera que la salud, el carácter y el comportamiento de los perros con pedigrí son temas de mayor importancia en los estándares de raza.
- b/ La FCI fomenta a nivel mundial aquellas actividades y disciplinas de deporte para los perros con pedigrí que considera beneficiosas para ellos.
- c/ La FCI encarga a sus comisiones ofrecer recomendaciones para otros temas importantes.
- d/ La FCI clasifica geográficamente el mundo de los perros con pedigrí conforme a sus tres (3) secciones.
- e/ La FCI confía en que sus Miembros y Socios contratantes mantengan la homogeneidad e integridad de sus registros nacionales.
- f/ La FCI respeta y acepta los acuerdos tomados con organizaciones nacionales de países que no son miembros.
- g/ La FCI es extremadamente exigente con su oficina central.
- h/ La FCI se encarga de las celebraciones periódicas de los Campeonatos Mundiales y de Sección.

Einleitung

Die FCI wurde in 1911 gegründet und hat 98 Mitglieder und Vertragspartner (ein Mitglied pro Land). Jedes Mitglied erstellt seine eigenen Ahnentafeln und bildet hochqualifizierte Richter aus. Die FCI stellt sicher, dass die Ahnentafeln und Richter innerhalb der FCI von allen Mitgliedern, Vertragspartnern und allen in der Hundeszene tätigen Personen anerkannt werden.

Im Rahmen des 100-jährigen Jubiläums der Fédération Cynologique Internationale hat der FCI-Vorstand seine Mission-Statement und seine Vision-Statement sowie die Werte überarbeitet um die weltweite Führungsposition der Vereinigung in der Kynologie zu erhalten.

In 2018 wurden nach Beschluss der Außerordentlichen Generalversammlung der FCI Mission-, Vision- Statement und Werte der FCI wie folgt überarbeitet:

Mission und Vision-statement

Die FCI ist die höchste Autorität für Hundekultur und unterstützt über ihre Mitglieder und Vertragspartner das Wohlergehen von Hunden mit Ahnentafel weltweit sowie ihre selektive Zucht und genealogische Registrierung.

Sie ist für die Gewährleistung der Gesundheit von Hunden mit Ahnentafel und internationaler Aktivitäten mit Hunden mit Ahnentafel zur Förderung der Beziehungen zwischen Hunden und Menschen verantwortlich.

Die FCI erkennt an, dass die folgenden Prinzipien und professionellen Zuständigkeiten für das Wohlergehen aller Hunde mit Ahnentafel weltweit von grundlegender Bedeutung sind:

Werte

- a/ Die FCI betrachtet die Gesundheit, das Temperament und das Verhalten von Hunden mit Ahnentafel als von höchster Bedeutung bei den Rassestandards.
- b/ Die FCI fördert weltweit Aktivitäten und Sport mit Hunden mit Ahnentafel, die sie für Hunde mit Ahnentafel als vorteilhaft erachtet.
- c/ Die FCI verlässt sich auf ihre Kommissionen, um Empfehlungen bezüglich weiterer wichtiger Angelegenheiten zu erhalten.
- d/ Die FCI unterteilt die Welt der Hunde mit Ahnentafel geographisch anhand ihrer drei (3) Sektionen.
- e/ Sie vertraut ihren Mitgliedern und Vertragspartnern, dass sie die Integrität ihrer nationalen Register schützen.
- f/ Die FCI anerkennt und respektiert Abkommen mit nationalen Hundeverbänden, die keine FCI-Mitglieder sind.
- g/ Für ihre Geschäftsstelle setzt sie höchste Maßstäbe.
- h/ Die FCI sorgt für die regelmäßige Durchführung von Championaten auf Welt- und Sektionsebene.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Dear FCI Members and Contract Partners,
Dear Readers,

It seems that even though the geo-political situation worldwide is not at its best, the dog world enthusiasts are on track again and the activities are on their way back to normality, as was the case some years ago. We all look forward to a peaceful world so that our hobby can keep developing and grow stronger. However, let's face it, our EU members (for the moment) are faced with projects of restrictive laws about the Welfare and Traceability of Dogs (and Cats) across the EU. The FCI has been in touch with the EU authorities and we do our best to avoid the pedigree dog community to be too affected. Very sadly, we lost last year some prominent personalities of our dog world and I feel it my moral duty to pay a very specific tribute to them.

Mrs Ana Eugenia Vazquez (SV)
(20/11/2024)

Mr José Luiz Vasconcelos (BR)
(12/5/2024)

In case more persons passed away, without us being notified, I apologise if I have failed to mention them!

International CACIB shows

The figures remain quite good compared to 2023, even though a slight decrease is observed. It seems that more FCI international CACIB shows were organised but, strangely enough, the total entry (although it is not definitive) is somewhat smaller.

The ban imposed on Russia and the impact of the war on UKU definitely affect these figures.

	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024 (23 April 2025)
Number of sanctioned CACIB shows	1,217	396	778	1,019	1,062	1.162
Number of CACIB shows with results sent to the FCI Office	1,186	376	731	981	1,017	1.097
Total Entry	942,002	280,661	565,956	819,603	867,239	829,593
Total CACIB confirmed	181,608	61,048	119,708	156,496	169,009	165,962

FCI Championship Shows

	TOTAL ENTRY AT THE EVENT
FCI World Dog Show 2024 (Zagreb)	14.851 dogs
FCI Europe Section Show 2024 (Celje)	9.970 dogs
FCI Americas and Caribbean Section Show 2024 (San Pedro Sula)	Not yet communicated
FCI Asia, Africa and Oceania Section Show 2024 (Suwon)	468 dogs

FCI Sport/Working Championships

As every year, our members are very active not only in terms of shows but they also show a huge interest in holding working/sporting championships.

FCI WORKING CHAMPIONSHIPS

- FCI Mondioring World Championship 2024 (Korinth – GR)
- FCI IGP World Championship 2024 (Vinkovci – HR)
- FCI IGP-FH World Championship 2024 (Dobbin-Linstow – DE)

FCI SPORT CHAMPIONSHIPS

- FCI Obedience World Championship 2024 (Jaunmarupe/Riga – LV)
- FCI Rally Obedience World Championship 2024 (Lieto – FI)
- FCI Agility World Championship 2024 (Opplabbeek/Outsbergen – BE)
- FCI Agility Junior Open Agility World Championship (JO AWC) 2024 (Opplabbeek – BE)
- FCI Agility European Open 2024 (GB)
- FCI Dog Dancing World Championship 2024 (Budapest – HU)
- FCI Dog Dancing European Open 2024 (Crailsheim – DE)
- FCI Grooming World Championship 2024 (Suwon – KR)
- FCI Flyball Open World Cup 2024 (Alsfeld – DE)

Titles of FCI International Champion

The number of titles of International Champion has exploded. It reflects the interest that breeders and owners show for our titles. The figures below do not include only the titles of Beauty Champion (CIB for Adults, Juniors and Veterans) but also the title of Show Champion, and all the titles for sports and working disciplines (Agility, Hunting, Obedience, Herding, etc.).

2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024
9,828	7,048	4,134	6,986	10,923 (among which about 3,000 titles for Veterans and Juniors)	17.230 (among which about 7.000 titles for Veterans and Juniors)

Kennel names registered with the FCI Kennel Names Directory

There are no proper explanations to explain the decrease of the number of kennel names registered with the FCI. Most countries now register their kennel names with FCI but for some unknown reasons, some of them have experienced a trend down.

2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024
22,450	19,292	39,107	24,912	21,430	17,231

Some highlights of the year 2024

- January: South Korea passes a law banning dog meat trade : <https://www.fci.be/en/South-Korea-passes-a-law-BANNING-THE-DOGMEAT-TRADE-4805.html>
- March: meeting of the FCI (President, Executive Director) with representatives of the EU DG-Santé (Animal Welfare) at the EU HQ in Brussels.
- April: launch of a new website, <https://www.petdoginfo.com>. That website is public-orientated, dog lovers, registered breeders, dog owners, and experts.
- April: the FCI invited its Members to get a deep knowledge of the draft law (EU) about Welfare and Traceability of Dogs across Europe : <https://www.fci.be/en/Regulation-of-the-European-Parliament-and-of-the-Council-on-the-welfare-of-dogs-and-cats-and-their-traceability-4814.html>
- May: the FCI publishes a Report on The Distribution of FCI Pedigree Dogs in the European Union in 2022
- June: very first online (semi-virtual) General Assembly for the yearly approval of the Balance Sheets of the year 2023 and the budget 2024, complying with the new Belgian law requirements.
- July: upon request of the Show Judges Commission and the FCI General Committee, all the national all-breed judges are removed from the FCI Judges Directory: <https://www.fci.be/en/Changes-in-the-FCI-Judges-Directory-Judges-tool-FOLLOW-UP-4829.html>
- September: announcement of the revival of the FCI World Challenge (of Top Dogs) that will take place in Helsinki (August 2025) in the frame of the FCI World Dog Show.
- November: the FCI (President, Executive Director) take part in a round table “Choose Health: Together let's create a better future for cats and dogs” organised by our Partner, Royal Canin, in Brussels. The primary purpose of the roundtable is to discuss the ways in which attending parties could rally to drive actions and influence positive changes around the extreme and unethical breeding of cats and dogs.

Several FCI commissions also held different seminars, physical or online, for their specialised judges in order to keep them familiar with the amended regulations (Rescue Dogs-Herding-Obedience, etc.).

To end up, let me express my warmest thanks to the FCI General Committee members, the FCI Members and Contract Partners, to all the presidents of the FCI commissions and to our devoted FCI Staff for their efficient cooperation. Special thanks are also conveyed to Royal Canin and their very dedicated and committed team.

Best regards,

FCI STANDARDS COMMISSION

Activity report

We had held our annual Standards Commission meeting at Timisoara, Romania on May 13th, 2024.-

Participants of the meeting:

Mr. Jorge Nallem, President of the Commission
 Mr. Petru Muntean
 Prof. Claude Guintard
 Prof. Peter Friedrich
 Mr. Pietro Condo
 Mr. Ricardo Torre Simoes

The Standard Commission main work continues being to revise and adapt new and existing standards. Standards are always in continue evolution for different reasons, for new rules on the countries of origin, simple reality of the breed, evolution or making better wording, etc. but mostly focus on dog's health, countries review the text in standards extra carefully to avoid wording that may result in interpretation that can lead to exaggerations that might cause health risks in the dogs, not forgetting to take special care to maintain always the type of the breeds.

The Commission thoroughly revises and amends standards continuously and the co-operation with the National Organizations is usually efficient. Still, the procedure must go through several steps before a standard can be changed and published, these documents are the backbone in the work of the FCI and its member countries.

Viewing of the text in standards from a health and welfare perspective has been intensified. This is not always about the wish of the countries of origin but, in the interest of keeping the breeds for the future, we all must realise that exaggerations in type as well as character issues in dogs might not only affect the health of the dogs, but it may also increase the risk to have breeds banned by law in some countries.

We had marked a working method within the commission; how to manage the standards since they arrive to the office until they are seen and discussed by the commission, then send back to the Country of Origin for acceptance and then to General Committee for their approval to be latter published.

We do insist on asking to the National Organizations collaboration on having a representative good drawing or picture to illustrate the front page of the FCI Standards as this will help a lot the comprehension of the hole standard, also we ask them to try to publish the commented standard on the FCI web page, <https://www.fci.be/en/Nomenclature/Education.aspx> with photos and video for the people and judges to understand better and in a more graphic way the breeds.

New breeds presented for provisional recognition on this meeting:

- 1) Bulldog Campeiro
- 2) Kazakh Tazy
- 3) Sabueso Fino Colombiano
- 4) Silken Windhound
- 5) Romanian Raven Shepherd Dog

All these breeds had been studied and are in different stages of the required processes.

Standards updated:

- a) Deutsche Dogge Nr 235
- b) Broholmer Nr 315
- c) Deutsche Spitz Nr 97

Next meeting was decided by members of both commissions, Standard and Scientific, to take place at Ohrid, Macedonia on September 4 and joint meeting on September 5, 2025.

FCI SCIENTIFIC COMMISSION

Activity report

MEMBERS:

Dr. Andrés Villalobos (President)

Dr. Veronika Chrpová

Dr. Joaquín Cerdeira

Mr. Thomas Uneholt (secretary)

Dr. Grégoire Leroy.

Dr. Ana Eugenia Vázquez Lievano (†)

The FCI Scientific Commission is one of the three compulsory commissions of the FCI; it is composed of six members elected by the FCI General Assembly.

To have an official character, all decisions made by the commission must be approved by the FCI General Committee.

The Scientific Commission is headed by a president, elected by the members of the commission, which also appoints a secretary among its members.

The Scientific Commission is assigned four main tasks:

- 1 To support guidelines on pedigree dog breeding, based on scientific evidence and experience in the field.
- 2 Reviewing and proposing amendments to the FCI International Breeding Regulations
- 3 To inform the FCI about new scientific discoveries which have an impact on breeds
- 4 To provide recommendations on the recognition of new breeds.

The Scientific Commission holds a physical meeting annually, together with the Standards Commission. In addition, the Commission has online meetings every two months.

sends the minutes of the meetings to the FCI Central Office and to all the delegates of the commission. Then, their approval is requested by the delegates on the occasion of the next meeting.

The FCI Scientific Commission, held its annual meeting in Timișoara, Romania, on May 13, 2024 and was attended by FCI President Dr. Tamas Jakkel. Where several important topics were discussed, likewise the main objective of this commission was emphasized:

“The most important task of the FCI Scientific Commission is to provide a solid evidence-based foundation using up-to-date results of the latest research to professionally support our management.”

Dr. Tamas Jakkel.

Bimonthly virtual (online) meetings have also been held to follow up on different topics such as:

1. informing the FCI about new scientific findings affecting the different breeds, e.g. hairless breeds.
2. Providing recommendations for the recognition of new breeds.
3. Recognition of breeds by the FCI in 2024.
Kazhak Tazy
Romanian Raven Shepherd
Segugio Dell A'pennino
4. Likewise, we have been following up on the documents provided for the recognition of the following breeds:
Tatra Hound
Bulldog Campeiro
Colombian Fino Hound
Silken Windhound
Rajapalyam
Mudhol Hound
Caravan Hound
5. 2 articles were developed: "Position of the FCI Scientific Commission on the use of genomic tools" and "Breeding systems and canine health and welfare. Position of the FCI Scientific Commission" on the breeding of purebred dogs based on scientific evidence and proven experience; to this end, approaches are being made to the FCI Health and Welfare Commission and the FCI Breeding Commission.
6. Breeding system welfare/health of dogs; a review of studies on the impact of purchasing puppies from kennels that are registered with the FCI is being carried out.
7. Discussion of the importance of breeding with certain coat colors, as well as the double Merle.
8. Revision of the guidelines on crossbreeding is also underway.

Appointment of the President of the FCI Scientific Commission:

The FCI General Committee held an online celebration on September 26, 2024 where they unanimously decided to appoint Dr. Jesús Andrés Villalobos Díaz (MX), president of the FCI Scientific Commission.

COMMISSION MEETINGS

The FCI Agility Committee had 2 meetings in the year 2024 with the delegates of the kennel clubs that are a member of the FCI and our partner organizations.

The first meeting was held on the 3rd and 4th of February in Brussels (Belgium). Our second meeting was held on October the 7th, the day after the FCI Agility World Championship, in Opglabbeek (Belgium).

In 2024, we made several changes to the Specifications for the FCI Agility World Championship. One of these was the removal of the official training, to improve on the duration of the schedule. Another was the addition of a section about the responsibilities of the judges who are judging this prestigious event.

The committee also created several working groups, amongst others:

- A working group to watch over the youth agility event of 2024 and make sure the kids have a positive experience. They will focus on helping young handlers manage competition pressure, keeping things fun and balanced, and making sure the kids and their dogs work well together in a safe and supportive environment
- Course design working group that will look into all aspects of Agility Course design.
- Working group Camera Systems Integration to investigate everything around the implementation of a "VAR" system.

Next to all of this, the committee decided also:

- that Italy will be the host of the 2027 FCI Agility World Championships
- to increase the number of reserve dogs from one per category to two
- to create a working group to watch over the youth agility event of 2024 and make sure the kids have a positive experience. They will focus on helping young handlers manage competition pressure, keeping things fun and balanced, and making sure the kids and their dogs work well together in a safe and supportive environment

- to align the fee of Agility judges with that of the show judges.

At the end of November / beginning of December the FCI Agility Committee organized a judges workshop with the help of the French Kennelclub. Every country was able to send 2 judges and over 30 in total attended the workshop. The judges discussed agility rules and guidelines and participated in workshops course building (via baseline system), practical judging and measuring dogs (with a short introduction to measuring the ULNA).

EVENTS

■ Junior Open Agility World Championship (JOAWC)

The world championship for handlers under 19 years of age was held in Opglabbeek (Belgium) from the 18th of July until the 21st. The location was Sentower Park, which was already used in 2022 to host the European Open. This year we had over 480 competitors and we see that even though this is a popular event it is getting increasingly more difficult to find hosts willing to organize it.

Hope to see you there!

FCI COMMISSION FOR BRITISH POINTERS

Activity report

On March 17th, the FCI British Pointer Committee held a meeting in Niš, Serbia. Important issues, such as the international CACIT competition calendar were discussed, so that all countries can hold competitions with the greatest possible success.

The Committee is responsible for the most important British Pointing Dogs' competition, the European Cup. For this reason discussions were made about the country where the next Cup will be held. Furthermore changes of the regulations were thoroughly analyzed, and judges were appointed.

On March 18th-19th, the European Cup was held in Niš with complete success in ideal terrain for the type of competition. Best dog was declared the Pointer Alice Tacinis whose handler was Mr. Manolakis, owner was Mr. Botsoglou and breeder Mr. Ristic, while after a tie the winning countries were Italy and the Czech Republic. The next meeting was set on February the 7th in Jerez de la Frontera, where the next European Cup will be held.

FCI COMMISSION FOR CANICROSS & TURNIERHUNDSPORT

Activity report

Commission Meetings

The first meeting of the commission for Canicross & Turnierhundsport was held on August 24th as an online meeting. During this meeting Martin Schlockermann from Germany was elected as the president of this group.

During an information exchange about Canicross & Turnierhundsport representatives of Germany, Austria, Hungary, France, Turkey and Sweden, explained the current situation and activities in their country. Canicross is well known in all these countries and becomes more and more popular. Turnierhundsport is only known in Germany and Austria. Therefore Martin Schlockermann gave a presentation which parts in Germany belong to Turnierhundsport and how to handle it.

Regarding rules for a FCI Open Canicross World Cup in 2025/2026 all members agreed that it is too early to talk about those rules. First it is necessary to get from all countries, of this commission, their valid rules. It is necessary to find a solution, because it seems to be, that all countries have different rules and are now not compatible. So all countries send their rules to create a table to show where deviations are and how adjustments could be made. The aim should be, to have a base, all could work on and at the next meeting to find a solution for all.

Additionally a proposal to measure the dogs in different classes, depending on ULNA-measurement and height was presented. The delegates discussed about the proposal. Even that is done differently in the countries. One idea was to compare the different measurements and proof by measuring the same dogs with the different systems for comparing whether these different measurement methods achieve so different results, that the dogs would be divided into different size classes. If so, it should be necessary to find one system all will follow.

FCI COMMISSION FOR DOG DANCING

Activity report

2024 was an exciting year for the dog dancing community.

The World Championship was hosted by Magyar Ebtenyésztők Országos Egyesületeinek Szövetsége and was held in a lovely hall in Budapest, Hungary. Despite of being located in the centre of a big city, the venue still had access to good dog walking areas, and it was spacious enough to make it comfortable for the competing dogs and handlers. Thank you to the organizers for a memorable event.

By the end of the weekend, the FCI flag was handed over to representatives from Finland, who are hosting the World Championship 2024. We wish them best of luck with the event and look forward to visiting your beautiful country.

The European Open Dog Dancing Championship was held in Germany and was hosted Verband für das Deutsche Hundewesen. It was an exciting weekend as it was the first time we could celebrate a European Bi-athlon Champion, a European Junior Champion and a European Teamwork To Music Champion. The European Championship rules were updated in 2023 to include these categories.

Magyar Ebtenyésztők Országos Egyesületeinek Szövetsége, Hungary has kindly offered to host the European Championship 2025 and we are all looking forward to return to Hungary for another fabulous event.

One of the Dancing Commission's big tasks in 2024 was to update the Championship regulations to ensure that we can have the most fair and fun competition for the participants. We have inspired each other and discussed the important details, which has resulted in some really good additions and changes to the regulations. This makes the 2025 Championships even more exciting. Thank you to all my colleagues in the Commission for the hard work and open minded, positive attitude that made this happen and to all the NCOs that are prioritizing sending representatives to our commission.

THE FCI COMMISSION FOR EDUCATION AND PUBLIC RELATIONS

Activity report

The FCI Commission for Education and Public Relations convened on 13 May 2024 in Antalya, Turkey, for its annual meeting to review the year's progress, address current challenges, and strategize future initiatives.

In the morning, before the official meeting, the FCI Commission's for Education and Public Relations delegates had a meeting with the FCI General Committee members Ms. Ilaria Biondi de Ciabatti, Ms. Barbara Muller, and Mr. Jose Miguel Doval Sanchez, and the representative of the FCI European Section Mr. Laurent Pichard. The primary objective of the meeting was to present the Commission's vision and direction and engage in a productive discussion regarding the FCI's expectations for the Commission's work moving forward. The conversation was both constructive and fruitful and served as grounds for the Commission's decisions taken during its meeting later on the same day.

The meeting with the FCI General Committee members was followed by the official meeting of the FCI Commission for Education and Public Relations. The meeting brought together delegates from six countries: Finland, Lithuania, Malaysia, Sweden, the Netherlands, and Turkey. It was also attended by a commission coordinator on behalf of the FCI General Committee and three guests.

The Commission's president, Ms. Ramune Kazlauskaitė, led the meeting, with Ms. Daiva Kvedariene serving as secretary and minutes writer.

The Commission's delegates approved the annual report presented by its President, Ms. Ramune Kazlauskaitė.

The Commission addressed the proposal for the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council on the welfare of dogs and cats and their traceability (2023/0447), particularly its potential impact on registered breeding and dog shows. Furthermore, the delegates discussed the Commission's further steps and proposals to the FCI General Committee, taking into account the insights and ideas shared during the meeting with the members of the FCI General Committee.

It was decided to collect and share best practices for engaging the public during dog shows, with an emphasis on creating meaningful connections between breeders and attendees. Also, it was agreed to share the NCOs' practices for celebrating Dog Day, emphasizing its role in promoting the values of responsible dog ownership and purebred breeding. Finally, the decision was taken to enhance the repository of the resources for breeder and general public education, ensuring they are easily accessible to NCOs through FCI's technical support.

It was also established that the Commission's next meeting will be held in Madrid, Spain, on March 29-30, 2025.

The Commission sent the first set of materials to the FCI office in November 2024, and they were approved by the FCI General Committee.

The FCI Commission for Education and Public Relations remains committed to advancing education, public awareness, and promoting cynological values globally. By fostering collaboration among member countries and engaging with the public, the Commission aims to uphold the FCI's mission of promoting responsible dog breeding and ownership.

FCI COMMISSION FLYBALL

Activity report

The year 2024 proved to be another exciting chapter for the FCI Flyball Commission. Building upon the momentum of previous years, the sport continued to thrive, showcasing a remarkable level of athleticism and sportsmanship. The pinnacle of the year was undoubtedly the Flyball Open World Cup (FOWC), an event that solidified Europe's growing dominance in the flyball world.

The 2024 FOWC, hosted in Alsfeld, Germany, from 31st May to 2nd June, was a spectacular display of flyball talent. Organized by a dedicated team comprising HundesportLich e.V., Flyball Oberfranken e.V., Hundesportverein Harthausen e.V., and members of the Quickstep teams, the event unfolded within the magnificent Hessenhalle.

Three competition rings ensured a smooth flow for the 75 participating teams, representing 10 European nations. While the late announcement of the tournament unfortunately precluded participation from teams outside Europe, the European contingent more than made up for it.

Until a decade ago, North American teams always dominated the top rankings of fastest flyball times in the world. However, a remarkable shift has occurred. Currently, 6 out of the top 10 fastest times all time belong to European teams. This trend culminated in 2024 with the Belgian team, RoadRunners Beep Beep, achieving an unprecedented world record of 14.07 seconds.

The FOWC itself was a thrilling competition with intense rivalry among top teams and as the tournament drew to a close, it was the UK and Belgium who emerged as the frontrunners, set to battle it out for the championship. The final showdown saw two Belgian teams, The Green Angels and the record-breaking RoadRunners Beep Beep, vying for the title. In a decisive victory, RoadRunners Beep Beep successfully defended their 2022 world championship.

The FOWC provided also a valuable platform for international collaboration. A dedicated meeting brought together members of the FCI Flyball Commission, along with key representatives from the UK and Poland, to address crucial issues. The primary focus of the discussions centered around the need for greater uniformity in international flyball regulations. Recognizing the existing discrepancies between rules in different countries, participants emphasized the importance of establishing a more standardized set of guidelines.

The FCI Flyball Commission subsequently convened an online meeting on 7th December 2024 to further deliberate on these matters. Action points were identified to facilitate the process of rule unification, with a commitment to implement concrete steps in the coming year.

The 2024 FCI Flyball Commission successfully navigated a year of significant progress. The FOWC showcased the exceptional talent within the European flyball community, while the concerted efforts towards international rule unification laid the foundation for a more cohesive and unified future for the sport.

The commission extends its sincere gratitude to its members, the dedicated organizing committee of the FOWC, and the VDH for their invaluable contributions in making 2024 a resounding success.

The commission is committed to building upon these achievements in the coming year. In the meantime, we can also announce that the next FOWC 2026 will be held in England and we hope to welcome teams from other continents as well.

FCI OBEDIENCE COMMISSION

Activity report

2024 was a very active year in the FCI Commission for Obedience. First of all we had two meetings: an online meeting in April and an in-person meeting after our World Championship in Riga/Latvia in July. Beside this we had an international judges meeting in the beginning of November in the lovely Italian city of Naples.

In the online meeting in April we fixed up small changes and clarifications in our rules from 2022, which had been necessary due to some ambiguities (are effective since 1st January 2025), and we clarified questions about the World Championship 2024 in Latvia.

In the in-person meeting in July in Riga we decided the last small changes in our rules and we fixed up the judges and locations for the next FCI Obedience World Championships, which will be held in Norway (2025) and Sweden (2026). Further we started to discuss the revision of the Regulations for FCI Obedience World Championships, which need to get an update (will be effective from 1st January 2026), and therefore we made the first decisions (e.g. in the future we will increase the number of participants from 100 to 120). In addition to the themes above we got some preinforma-tions about the international judges meeting in November in Naples/Italy and for sure a review to the World Championship 2024 in Riga/Latvia. The reports of both events you can find below. Thanks to Ton Hoffmann (Chief Judge WWCh 2024), Vladislava Akimova (Latvian De-legate) and Hanspeter Jutzi (Vice-president of the commission).

In the name of the FCI Commission for Obedience I want to give very special thanks to the Latvian Ken-nel Club (LKF) and all persons who were involved for arranging WWCh 2024 and the in-person meeting of our commission. We were really feel-ing very well through the whole days in the wonderful city of Riga. A fur-ther special thank I want to give to the Italian Kennel Club (ENCI) and their organizers for arranging the international judges meeting in No-vember in Naples, which had also had a very nice reverberation.

We all in the commission are look-ing forward to a very interesting year 2025 hoping to meet us again in two online meetings in January and April and at the FCI Obedience World Championship 2025, com-bined with our in-person meeting in Sandefjord, Norway, at the begin-ning of July.

Our goal is to finish the revision of the Regulations for FCI Obedience World Championships, so that they can be introduced by 1st January 2026. In addition to this we want to generate an appendix, which will include detailed specifications and advice for such events, so this will be again quite a busy year.

Kindest regards

Christian Steinlechner,
President FCI Obedience Commission

FCI Obedience World Championship 2024

Date: 25th till 28th of July 2024

Place: Riga (Latvia)

WEDNESDAY 24TH

I arrived on Tuesday 23th July in Riga. On Wednesday we went to the competition field to explore the situation and meet all volunteers. From 13:00 the volunteers started to build up the ring and the ringstew-ards were preparing the ring. It was amazing, that they did it in a short time, so you could recognise that they were very well prepared. Also the President of the Latvian Kennel Club (LKF), Mrs. Vija Klučniece, was present to welcome us. The other judges arrived also on this day, so there was time to meet each other.

THURSDAY 25TH

The first official day of the competi-tion started with vet-check, registra-tion and the judges meeting with the stewards. At 11:00 the official open-ing was announced and all teams from 23 countries came into the ring with their national flags. After the opening speech from Mrs. Vija Klučniece, a group of four Cheer-leaders did a performance. After this, a group of four man and wom-an performed a traditional Latvian dance in Latvian costumes. Very special, I can't remember that we had this before in a World Championship. The Latvian national anthem was played and the World Championship 2024 was declared for open.

At 13:00 the group exercises started and this took time till the end of the day. This was with 19 groups of 5 teams a warming up for the four judges. At the end of the day the white dog was performing the individual exercises. At the end of the day we had the judges meeting and the teamleader meeting, where all questions were answered and little issues were adjusted and solved.

FRIDAY 26TH

The first day of the individual qualifications, start at 08:00. Therefore the ring was divided in two rings. In the first ring, Pernilla Talberg (FI) and Clemente Grosso (IT) judged the exercises Heelwork, Positions during heelwork, Recall with positions and Sent to circle and square.

In the second ring Vladislava Aki-mova (LV) and Jan Brücker (GER) judged Scent and retrieve, ex 3.8, better known as Uwe's exercise, Directed retrieve and Distance Control.

I have to explain "Uwe's exercise". Uwe Wehner, the German delegate in the FCI Commission for Obedience, came for several years with the proposal to implement this exercise. In the beginning many countries had huge problems with this and nowadays, everyone likes this exercise.

Till 14:30 it was nice weather, not too sunny, nice temperature for the dogs, but then it became dark, very dark. A little bit rain, but in a few minutes it was a thunderstorm with heavy rain. In English they say "It is raining cats and dogs". For sure we all know how heavy rain could be, but this was unbelievable. In a short time the ring was gone and on the place, only water was on.

Everyone was holding tents, computers, etc. After 20 minutes it stopped so quick as it came.

Of course we stopped the competition for about an hour to rebuild the ring. The water was gone so quick as it came. The live stream had a lot of damage and tried to made it possible to continue filming.

After 47 teams, we had a result for the first qualification day as follows:

	No	Country	Handler	Dog	Breed	Points	Evaluation
1	19	Finland	Maarit Hellman	Unlimited Star Gwen	Border Collie	279,75	CACIOB
2	47	Sweden	Michelle Holmlund	Kajsaligans Amazing	Border Collie	275,75	Res. CACIOB
3	27	Norway	Kjellaug Selsaas	Myrullen's Nelly	Border Collie	274,50

SATURDAY 27TH

The second qualification day had the same program as the first with a little addition. At the end of the day the bitches in heat are usually allowed to start. But according to the Latvian law that is forbidden. I was happy to get the information that the Latvian Kennel Club got a permission to admit the bitches in heat to start in the competition, so at the end of the day, two bitches in heat were allowed to compete.

After 49 teams, we had a result for the second qualification day as follows:

	No	Country	Handler	Dog	Breed	Points	Evaluation
1	63	Sweden	Karin Fischer-Kristiansson	Vallhunden Chapman	Border Collie	280,00	CACIOB
2	101	Italy	Emiliana Cirelli	Interforce Tsunami	Border Collie	276,75	Res. CACIOB
3	71	Finland	Tiina Palmu	Pendolinon Little Soulmate	Golden Retriever	272,00

The team results were also available on Saturday:

At the evening, the gala dinner was planned in the Bellevue Hotel. After a welcome from the Vicepresident of the Latvian Kennel Club and the first course we drew starting numbers for the finals. In order the finalists came forward, took a number and had to announce that in the microphone by themselves. This was new, but very nice.

The food was excellent and enough for everybody. During the dinner there was a performance from two dancers and what we didn't expect: after the first plate, everyone of us had to dance. How they did it, it was miracle, but nobody could refuse. I tried, but I also had to dance. This was a big performance for everybody.

SUNDAY 28TH

The weather forecast has foreseen, that from about 13:00 we could have a terrible storm, what we don't want to have during the finals. On Saturday we took therefore the decision to start at 07:00, skipped a few coffee breaks, shortened the other breaks, so that we had the finals for all with more or less the same conditions. Only during the last competitor it was raining, but we finished about 13:00. We took an hour lunch break and during the lunch it was raining. In this time the closing ceremony was prepared and after the lunch we could start with the last part of the World Championship 2024. The teams were present in the ring as by the opening. All prizes were handed over to the places 1, 2 and 3.

	No	Country	Handler	Dog	Breed	Points	Evaluation
1	5	Italy	Emiliana Cirelli	Interforce Tsunami	Border Collie	275,00	CACIOB
2	8	Finland	Christa	Enqvist-Pukkila	Gingerbell Indeed A Mess	Border Collie	Res. CACIOB
3	2	Norway	Kjellaug Selsaas	Myrullen's Nelly	Border Collie	266,75

The national anthem from Italy was played to the fresh the new FCI Obedience World Champion 2024, and the President of the Latvian Kennel Club, Mrs. Vija Klučniece, gave her closing speech. She was from five days, four days present at the competition. This was a great honour for us all, which we had never seen before.

The next speech was from Christian Steinlechner, President of the FCI Commission for Obedience. At first he thanked all people involved with the organization from this World Championship. Without all the volunteers, it is impossible to organize such an event. Also many thanks for all the competitors, without them we would also have no World Championship. Then we sang all together the "Happy Birthday" while the Latvian Kennel Club has this year their 50st anniversary.

Next year, the host country will be Norway. To this occasion the Norwegian delegate, Mr Stein Nergaard, got the FCI flag handed over to keep it for the next edition.

For the last official part, Christian called our former President from the Obedience Commission, Mrs. Carina Savander-Ranne, in front to hand her over a present from all commission members. Every member had taken a few articles, especially from their country. These were collected in a big basket, so that Carina has nice memories for her many years of activities in the commission. She was lucky that there were Fins here by car to get it home.

As Chief Judge I want to gain again many thanks to our host, The Latvian Kennel Club with its staff, for the whole preparation and organization. We will write it in the books as a very well organized FCI Obedience World Championship 2024.

Yours sincerely

Ton Hoffmann

FCI Obedience International Judges Meeting 2024

The FCI Obedience Commission, in collaboration with the Italien Kennel Club (ENCI), organized a meeting for FCI Obedience judges and delegates in Naples, Italy, on November 2nd and 3rd 2024. The local organization was handled by Carlo Fretta with the help of Chiara Barone, the dog/handler teams and stewards were prepared by Valentina Balli. The venues were the Hotel Casal dell'angelo and the Real Bosco dei Capodimonte outdoor arena.

38 judges and delegates from 19 countries attended the meeting. Unfortunately, our President, Christian Steinlechner, had to cancel his participation due to health reasons, so the meeting was chaired by our Vicepresident Hanspeter Jutzi with the help of our Secretary Stasa Pardubsky. The purpose of the meeting was to familiarize the judges and delegates with the changes in the FCI Obedience rules and the resulting of new judging guidelines.

PROGRAM:

Saturday 2 November

- 9:00 - Meeting starts, presentation of the new rules
- 10:45 - Practical work, judging and discussion in groups, presentation
- 18:00 - Aperitif and guided tour at Catacombs of San Gennaro, afterwards dinner

Sunday 3 November

- 8:30 - Meeting starts, presentation and discussion of the results continued
- 10:45 - Discussion of urgent questions

The new rules were explained with the help of a presentation created by Christian Steinlechner. For the practical work the judges and delegates were divided into groups. The organizers invited teams from different classes, which were then evaluated by the judges. There were very interesting discussions in the groups about how the work should be assessed. However, the judges' individual evaluations were usually not very far apart when it came to awarding qualifications and points.

During the following discussions, based on questions submitted by the countries and very specific incidents from competitions, many issues were clarified. One of the more important discussion subjects was how to ensure that Obedience competitions become more attractive for recreational dog sports athletes.

The meeting was a great event: a great hotel, good seminar rooms, a beautiful outdoor arena and, last but not least, wonderful weather. Then, for the practical part, a very good steward and dog/handler teams, who worked very well despite the many judges on the field.

For future meetings we will have to think more about the organization of the practical part. There were too many people on the field at the same time, so many dogs and handlers were a bit overwhelmed at the beginning and many judges could not see the total execution of the exercises. Many thanks to the organizers of the meeting, especially to Ciara and Carlo, and of course to Stasa and Christian for all the preparation.

Hanspeter Jutzi,
Vicepresident

FCI COMMISSION FOR RALLY OBEDIENCE

Activity report

02-15-2024:

The year started with a meeting on the 15'th of February, on Skype.

04-13-2024 to 04-14-2024:

Sweden hosted a physical meeting for the delegates on the 13'th and 14'th of April 2024 in Helsingborg. The delegates from 11 countries attended the meeting.

09-28-2024 to 09-29-2024:

The very successful first World Championship in Rally Obedience was held in Turku, Finland, where 49 Competitors from 10 different nations competed.

The team competition completed on Saturday was won by Sweden, followed by Denmark and Austria.

The individual competition was won by Lisa Grönstedt Vilhelmsson & Eldflammans Triton from Sweden, followed by Eija Heinonen & Kutinan Xuurvili from Finland on second place, and Solveig Nyvold & Doubleuse Marlon Brandon from Sweden on third place.

In relation to the World Championships, the commission held meetings from the 27'th of September to the 29'th of September.

The competition had Tytti Lintenhofer, Finland as Chief Judge, and Ida Lindgren, Sweden, Brian Binnerup, Denmark, Karin Lassmann, Estonia and Martina Klein, Germany as ring judges.

12-17-2024:

The year ended with an online Skype meeting on December 17'th.

FCI COMMISSION FOR RESCUE DOGS

Activity report

The year 2023 - 2024, for the FCI Rescue Dogs Commission, is a special and varied one.

Since February 2023, several canine teams, members of national canine associations, FCI members have participated in the search for people, following the earthquake in Turkey.

More than 12 teams (over 60 rescue dogs) were involved for 14 days and had remarkable achievements, they found both living and deceased people.

The help of each team was appreciated at the highest level by the Turkish government and the Turkish embassy in each participating country, the search-rescue dogs receiving awards and special diplomas.

The media coverage of the activity and results of the rescue dogs, following the earthquake in Turkey, led to greater and varied involvement of the business environment, as sponsors and donors.

The increasingly varied and numerous participation in all rescue specialties, from as many FCI member countries as possible, in the World Championship of Rescue dogs 2023, is a sure indicator of the development of rescue search activity, worldwide.

Today, it is no longer a surprise to see on the podium, at the FCI World Championships, countries that had no tradition in this sport, but have a major interest in the development of this specialty.

The world champions Teams at the FCI World Championship of Rescue dogs 2023, are:

Universal - U:	Romania
Rubble search - T:	Italy
Area search - FL:	Italy
Tracking - F:	Belgium

Universal – Romania, WCH Team

Rubble search – Italy, WCH Teams

Area search – Italy, WCH Team

Tracking – Belgium, WCH Teams

The increasing number of participants, from one year to the next, at the Judges Seminar and at rescue Trainers Seminar, is another indicator that proves that the new strategy of the FCI Rescue Dogs Commission is on an upward path.

The increase in delegations, members of the FCI Rescue Dogs Commission, shows the desire to develop this activity within the FCI, from as many countries as possible.

Since February 2024, the FCI Rescue dogs Commission is led by:

- President: Liviu Ionescu (Romania) - re-elected
- Vice-Presidents:
Bruno Piccinelli (Italy) - re-elected
Monika Rusing (Estonia)

The increasingly varied and numerous participation in all rescue specialties, from as many FCI member countries as possible, in the World Championship of Rescue dogs 2024, is a sure indicator of the development of rescue search activity, worldwide.

Today, it is no longer a surprise to see on the podium, at the FCI World Championships, countries that had no tradition in this sport, but have a major interest in the development of this specialty.

The world champions of the Individual FCI World Championship of Rescue dogs 2024, was:

- Rubble search - T: Italy
- Area search - FL: Austria
- Tracking - F: Italy

Today we observe a great interest from dog breeders, their dogs with great results in international dogs shows, also participate in the examinations for rescue dogs.

An interesting statistic of the FCI recognized dog breeds that are involved in rescue competitions and exams:

- until 2016 more than 32 breeds
- until 2022 more than 40 breeds
- until 2025 more than 50 breeds

The adaptation of the new Regulations for search and rescue dogs in 2024, was another vision of the Commission, that all rescue dogs have a high adaptability coefficient in exams, having as a model the typology of disasters that happened in the areas of the world.

Today we have - Regulation for search and rescue dog, Regulation for search and rescue dogs TEAMS and Open Competition.

Our plan for FCI WCHs of Search and Rescue dogs:

- 2025 – Turkey - FCI WCH Teams
- 2026 – Slovenia - FCI WCH Individual
- 2027 – Romania - FCI WCH Teams
- 2028 – France - FCI WCH Individual

FCI's rescue dog activity is growing more and more and varied.

FCI COMMISSION FOR RETRIEVERS

Activity report

The FCI commission annual meeting took place in Benešov, Czech Republic on the 7th of February 2024, prior to the European Championship. It was a great meeting with delegates of 15 countries present! Also Mr. José M. Doval was present, representing the FCI general committee. It shows how active the working retriever community is and how well the commission is functioning.

Several important topics were discussed, but it was specifically satisfying to completely finalize the updated international field trial regulations. This process was started in 2019 and to see the result after 5 years was another proof of the constructive work delivered by the commission.

European Retriever Championship 2023

The 2023 European Retriever Championship was hosted by Czech Republic at the estate around Konopiště castle which is one of the oldest pheasantries in Europe with a fantastic history.

The judges on 8th and 9th of February 2024 were Mr. Les McLean (United Kingdom), Mr. Roddy Forbes (United Kingdom), Mr. Fons Exelmans (Belgium) and Mr. Pieter Vivijns (Belgium).

30 dogs from 14 different countries participated in this historical place. Both days were walked-up with a great variety in the ground with mainly pheasants.

On the second day Crazylake Barrique Blue, a black Labrador bred, owned and handled by Hannes Wiesinger from Austria, gave a very nice eye-wipe and afterwards made one of the most challenging retrieves of the whole trial look very easy. This secured his win and was awarded 1st Excellent with CACT/CACIT and European Champion 2023. He made history winning two championships back to back as he also won the European Championship 2022 in Finland, something nobody else has achieved before.

Stef Bollen from Belgium with Int FT Ch De Dee Arlet Star took 2nd place Excellent RCACT/RCACIT and Jan Lorenzen from Denmark with DKJ Ch. Stenhøjgårds Friday was awarded 3rd place Excellent.

International Working Test 2024

The IWT 2024 was organised by the German Retriever Club on 8th and 9th July at Hofgut Appenborn near Rabenau. 43 teams from 16 different FCI member countries took part in the event. Judges Clare Baker (England), David Logan (Scotland), Nigel Probert (Wales), Billy Lundy (Ireland), Betty Schwieren (Germany) and Anja Moeller (Germany) took advantage of the varied grounds to offer the participating teams ten challenging tests over the two days. They were supported by around 70 helpers on the grounds and many more in the behind the scenes organisation, who all did an outstanding job. More than 400 spectators watched the competitions on both days.

The winning team was: Team Denmark 1

Henriette Schausen with DKWTCH Batmoors Premier Burnley
Filip Stentoft with 3.RM23 Kela
Flemming Nøhr with DKWTCH, DKMTCH Sagnlandet's Glory Zip-po.

Second place went to Italy 2 and third place to Finland 3.

THE WINNING TEAMS OF THE INTERNATIONAL WORKINGTEST (IWT) 2024

European Retriever Championship 2024

The European Retriever Championship 2024 was hosted by Italy in Gambolo. In 2024 two championships took place as the 2023 edition happened very late in the 2023/2024 shooting season, February 2024 in Czech Republic.

The ground that the Italian Retriever Club managed to secure for this event was never used for a field trial before, but everybody agreed that we hope it will not be the last time. This estate has everything to test a gundog. We had two days walking up in every type of ground and cover. The second day started with a duck drive where all the dogs had some challenging water retrieves.

The 2024 European Championship was judged by Stefania Gandolfi (Italy), David Logan (United Kingdom), Declan Boyle (Ireland) and Sefano Martinoli (Italy) and 30 dogs from 13 different countries participated.

The level was high and near the end of the second day, 5 dogs were still very clean. In the last round we sadly lost two dogs, one of them being the winner of the last two editions. A very consistent dog, being so close to the awards again for the third time in a row.

When the judges declared the trial over, 3 dogs were left, only the judges knowing the result.

Finally they declared Rinus Heijmans from The Netherlands with Int FT Ch. Beautiful Hunter Reeve European Champion 2024 with 1st place Excellent, CACT/CACIT.

Lena Högfeldt from Sweden with Holten's Aurum took 2nd place Excellent with RCACT/RCACIT and Simeon Schmoigl from Austria with Int FT CHh. Jersey Girls Velvet was awarded 3th place Excellent.

The full results of all European Retriever Championships and International Working Tests can be found on: <https://www.retrieverchampionship.eu/>

The International Working Test and European Retriever Championship 2025 will be hosted in Belgium.

FCI COMMISSION FOR SIGHTHOUND SPORT (CSS)

Activity report

The FCI Sighthound Sport encompasses both lure coursing and racing, each rooted in the sighthound's natural instinct to chase fast-moving prey. Lure coursing evaluates a sighthound's working abilities, including its speed, agility, and ability to track and capture a lure. Racing, on the other hand, measures a sighthound's capacity to compete directly against others, covering a set distance in the shortest possible time. While both disciplines share a common foundation, their organization and participation requirements differ significantly. As a result, the practical application of the shared regulations outlined in the FCI Regulations for International Sighthound Racing and Lure Coursing Events requires distinct approaches for each sport.

Lure Coursing: A Strong and Thriving Discipline

With about 55 international CACIL Lure coursing events in about 20 countries during 2024 lure coursing fosters a thriving international competition scene.

Racing: Overcoming Challenges through Collaboration

Based on the recommendations of the working groups racing and rulebook, the CSS proposed in the second half of 2023 updated regulations for racing. The FCI board promptly approved these regulations, ensuring their implementation as of January 1, 2024. As a result, approximately 30 international CACIL racing events were scheduled on the FCI calendar for 2024 across around 7 countries. On top of that, an official application to organize the FCI World Championship Racing 2025 has been submitted.

Continuous monitoring, evaluation and adaptation

To ensure the continued success of these reforms, the Racing and Rulebook Working Groups will keep in close contact with the clubs and participants to monitor and evaluate the international coursing and racing events. Their findings are submitted to the CSS on a regular base, which will assess the need for any adjustments to further refine the regulations.

Looking Ahead with Confidence

The CSS remains very satisfied with the progress made in 2023 and 2024. With the new regulations, increased collaboration, and a strong commitment to the future of sighthound sports, the CSS looks forward to an even more dynamic and promising year ahead.

FCI Championships 2024

In 2023, the CSS World Championship Lure Coursing 2024 was initially allocated to Poland. However, despite the significant preparatory work already undertaken, Poland was ultimately compelled to withdraw its candidature due to internal and external challenges. Additionally, as no applications were received for a World Championship Racing event, 2024 passed without a FCI Championship in sighthound sport.

Meetings of the commission

The FCI Commission for Sighthound Sport has 2 major priorities:

- Allocation and supervision of the FCI World Championships Lure Coursing and Racing.
- Keeping the 'FCI Regulations for International Sighthound Races and Lure Coursing Events' and the 'FCI International Guidelines for Lure Coursing Judges' up to date.

In recent years, our commission has grown significantly closer, with a remarkable increase in commitment and involvement from its members. This dedication is reflected in the consistently high attendance numbers, demonstrating a strong sense of engagement.

To further strengthen this positive development, commission members have expressed a clear interest in being more informed, allowing them to contribute even more effectively. As president, I am very pleased with this progress and deeply appreciate the collective effort that continues to drive our commission forward.

During 2024 the CSS held 2 official and 2 informative video meetings of the CSS:

Official meetings

- on June 5th, 21 out of 23 delegates were present
- on December 2nd, 21 out of 23 delegates were present

Informative meetings

- on February 22nd, 20 out of 23 delegates were present
- on October 10th, 19 out of 23 delegates were present

The main topic of discussion at the official meetings was the organization of the FCI World Championships Coursing and Racing. In 2025, for the first time in many years both championships will be organized again.

The World Championship Lure Coursing will take place in Odry, Czech Republic, in May, followed by the World Championship Racing in Gelsenkirchen, Germany, in September. CSS is delighted that these prestigious events will once again be held and extends already its sincere gratitude to the organizing committees for their dedication and efforts.

Additionally, several minor clarifications to the international rulebook were reviewed and approved to ensure clarity and consistency in regulations.

The following working groups are active to do the necessary preparatory work for the annual CSS meetings:

- Working Group Racing
- Working Group Rulebook

Willem Vermaut

President of the FCI Commission of Sighthound Sport (CSS).

FCI COMMISSION FOR SLEDGE DOGS

Activity report

The FCI Sledge Dog Commission had its first (digital) meeting in November 2024 since its last physical meeting in Estonia 2018. In 2021 during the Covid period, the commission worked via exchange of email for working breed status of the sledge dog breeds. Only the Greenland dog - whose standard is under the authority of FCI member Denmark - was granted working breed status. Also the provisional recognized Yakutian Laika, whose standard belongs to Russia, is acknowledged as a working breed.

The standards of the Alaskan Malamute and the Siberian Husky are under the authority of the AKC.

The breed's parent club in the United States does award sled dog titles to dogs that meet qualifying standards in sanctioned sled dog races. However, these titles are not officially recognized as AKC titles because the races are conducted exclusively on snow. The American Kennel Club follows a one-size-fits-all policy that all performance trials should be accessible to participants nationwide, regardless of location or climate. This creates a challenge for sled dog breeds, which have historically lived and worked in cold climates for thousands of years. The requirement for universal accessibility means that trials must be designed in a way that accommodates regions where snow is not available, potentially altering the traditional conditions under which these breeds have been tested for generations. This raises questions about how to fairly evaluate the working abilities of sled dog breeds while maintaining the integrity of their historical function and polar characteristics. Recent research has shown the challenges the registered sled dog breeds are facing when racing expanded into warmer climates.

The FCI Sledge Dog Commission met on 30 November 2024, in response to the findings of the scientific study Comparative Population Genomics of Arctic Sled Dogs (Smith, Srikanth and Huson, September 2024) which shows significant introgression of Alaskan Husky type dogs and European breeds, in part of the registered Siberian Husky population. From the study:

"The finding of European breed introgression in about half of the Siberian dogs that compete in sled dog races, with notable European ancestry in both the Racing and Seppala populations, but minimal admixture in other Siberian populations, supports Alaskan or European breed gene flow into the Siberian Husky after breed formation.

Alaskan sled dog or European breed crosses in the Siberian Husky may have been used to introduce performance enhancing alleles from faster and more heat tolerant breeds which would have been advantageous as sled dog racing expanded into warmer climates.

The Alaskan sled dog, primarily bred for performance and lacking formal recognition by kennel clubs, has become a leading competitor in sled dog races, including the Iditarod, winning numerous events across various distances. Although their origins are initially from the native village dogs in Alaska, today they are mainly purpose bred for sprint and distance racing and have included many different breeds in their genetic make-up. Crosses to European breed groups such as sighthounds and pointers have been used to improve speed and heat tolerance in the Alaskan over the past century." (Huson et al 2012)

With the scientific findings at hand, showing that half of the registered Siberian Husky population bred for racing has Alaskan or European breed introgression, it is obvious that measures need to be taken.

To safeguard fair sport competition internationally, the FCI Sledge Dog Commission is committed to work for regulations that ensure only those registered dogs that truly are their breed enter competition for registered sled dog breeds. To protect the breed and the integrity of pedigrees, the commission urges national canine organizations to take measures at registration level for the sled dog breeds. A possible measure could be to provide full pedigrees only to dogs that have tested as single breed (100%) on a genetic test for breed out of genetically tested parents.

According to the guidelines of the FCI Scientific Commission, cross-breeding with other breeds is a measure taken to address a serious health problem in a breed or if the breed has a very small genepool. In the case of the Siberian Husky, cross breeding has been done illegitimately to alter the characteristics of the breed to enhance performance and gain advantage over the competition that runs with single bred Siberian Huskies.

FCI members are urged to take measures at breeding level to uphold FCI Internal Rules (art. 3.2 pt. E).

FCI Sledge Dog Commission specifically refers to the recent statement on the use of genomic tools by the FCI General Committee, mentioning that FCI should help to improve the integrity of pedigrees.

The FCI petdoginfo site states that national canine organizations “aspire to be the most effective advocates for purebred dogs in their countries whilst safeguarding the pureness of the purebred genetic pool”.

On the scientific resource site of the International Partnership for Dogs (IPFD) it is stated; “Research indicates that the specific development of the Siberian Husky breed means that a genetic test for breed should correlate close to or at 100%, even at high levels of specificity” (Brown et. Al 2015)

The Siberian Husky is not a newly developed breed, it does not have an open studbook, and controlled crosses under kennel club supervision have not occurred in recent history.

The Siberian Husky is an ancient breed from a relatively pure Arctic lineage with a closed studbook since 1930, resulting in a unique and distinct genetic signature. As a result, a purebred Siberian Husky with a documented pedigree should consistently test as a single breed on genetic breed identification tests with no ancestry from other breeds.

FCI Sledge Dog Commission also refers to the statement as published on 4 December 2024 by the breed’s parent club in USA: “The Siberian Husky Club of America condemns all cross-breeding of the Siberian Husky”. Source: SHCA

Ultimately, it is the responsibility of breeders to keep the breed’s studbook trustworthy. As such, the FCI Sledge Dog Commission urges breeders to use genomic tools with high density marker sets in their breeding program, in order to protect the integrity of the ancient sled dog breeds.

Despite that the American Kennel Club has chosen to classify the sled dog titles of the breed’s parent clubs as club-titles, rather than official AKC titles, it should not be interpreted as a reflection on the working status of the Siberian Husky and Alaskan Malamute. The breeds belong to the AKC Working Group. The breeds’ heritage and capabilities as working sled dogs remain unchanged, regardless of the challenges posed by accessibility in a mostly warm-climate country like the United States. The breeds do belong in the FCI nomenclature to the Spitz and Primitive group, section Nordic Sledge Dogs, indicating their northern heritage and function as sled dog. They too should be acknowledged with official FCI working breed status. A goal our commission will keep working for.

SHOW JUDGES COMMISSION

Activity report

Under the leadership of President Mr. Dino Muto, the Italian Kennel Club (ENCI) welcomed with great attention the annual meeting of the FCI judges and shows commission on 2nd and 3rd February 2024 at the Hotel NH Collection in the centre of Rome (Italy).

Mrs Barbara Mueller, official representative of the FCI Central Committee was present as well.

We would like to extend our warmest thanks to President Dino Muto and his staff for the excellent organisation and smooth running of our annual meeting.

Following the election of the Committee during the vote, I am delighted to welcome Mrs Anne-Marie Class, France, for her re-election as Secretary, and Mr Francesco Cochetti, Italy, as Vice-President.

I myself, Laurent Pichard, have been re-elected as President of the FCI Judges' Commission and I like to thank all Judges Commission members for the trust placed in me and the committee.

I'm delighted to have a close-knit committee at my side, one that is well established in today's cynology and knows all the ins and outs. We were thus able to take into consideration the many points that were raised during our annual meeting in Rome, of which I will list the main ones below.

If you are more interested, I would be grateful if you could read all the details in the minutes which have been published on the FCI website under the heading “FCI Judges Commission, Rome 2 and 3 February 2024”.

The most important points to note are, of course, on the one hand, the modification of the judges' directory visible on the FCI website, showing only international judges and no longer national judges, and on the other hand, standardized training between the various national organizations.

This is to try to have a similar level of training between the different national organizations, especially with regard to the length of training for breed and group judges.

We must also facilitate the work of the FCI collaborators within their secretariat by firmly requesting all national organizations to keep up to date the information concerning new judges and to provide the complete documents to the FCI office, which must verify if the proposed candidate corresponds in all points to the regulations in force for the appointment of show judges, before their name is published on the FCI website.

The FCI approval and confirmation is required.

We have had a rather eventful year, especially with regard to the decision to no longer publish the list of national judges in the FCI directory. This has, of course, created some turbulence within the FCI secretariat, but this was necessary in order to start again on a clear and solid basis.

Please refer to the FCI website under Show Judges Commissions Rome 2023 for full details of the changes to the Show Judges Regulations which have been approved by the FCI Central Committee.

The FCI Judges Facebook page, in the hands of Francesco Cochetti, has met with great success and is consulted very regularly. We would remind you that it is reserved for FCI judges only.

There was no judges' congress in 2024, and we look forward to Italy organizing a World Congress in Bologna 2026.

One of the real highlights in the cynological world was, of course, the FCI World Championship Show in Zagreb, which brought together more than 20,000 dogs and many very well experienced judges from all 3 FCI sections. Once again, a huge congratulation to the Croatian Kennel Club, HKS.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the FCI General Secretariat, which keeps all the documents relating to show judges up to date, and especially to Yves Declerc and Marjorie Grimmelprez.

I would also like to thank Barbara Mueller, our commission representative, who supports and defends our proposals at FCI Central Committee meetings.

Our next meeting will take place in beautiful Riga in 2025 and I look forward to seeing you all there again.

Laurent Pichard

FCI SHOWS COMMISSION

Activity report

After the turbulent period in the last mandate of the FCI Show commission new FCI show commission president, vice president and secretary have been elected.

The Annual Meeting was scheduled and took place at the beginning of February in Roma Italy.

There were 30 delegates.

The meeting was well organized with great hospitality offered by the Italian Kennel Club and president Mr. Dino Muto.

On the occasion of the meeting Mrs. Macarena Pantaleon from Chile was elected for the position of Vice president, Mr. Ozan Belkis from Turkey as Secretary of the commission and Mr. Bojan Mataković from Croatia as Commission President.

The FCI General Committee has adopted the proposal from our commission regarding the new FCI - CACIB distribution for the Toy poodles.

In collaboration with the FCI office, a survey regarding the possibility of exhibiting neutered dogs in the veteran class was conducted.

At the request of the FCI Commission for Shows and Show Judges, the FCI has sent a reminder to its members about the obligation to submit breed standard presentations for their national breeds.

Highlights of 2024

The World Dog Show 2024 was organized in Zagreb, Croatia at the end of April.

The total number of dogs entered was 14.850.

The Americas and Caribbean Section Show 2024 was organized by the Kennel Club of Honduras at the middle of March in San Pedro Sula.

The section show in the European Section 2024 was organized by the Slovenian Kennel Club at the beginning of October in Celje.

The total number of dogs entered was 10.006.

The section show in the Asia, Africa and Oceania Section 2024 was organized by the Kennel Club of South Korea at the middle of December in Suwon.

The total number of dogs entered was 466.

Statistic of 2024

A total of 1.181 CACIB were entered on the FCI list of the International shows which is almost 10 % more than previous year.

The number is distributed on the sections: Europe 794 CACIB shows, The Americas & Caribbean 162 CACIB shows and Asia, Africa & Oceania 225 CACIB shows.

I would like to thank my colleagues in the Show Commission, Mrs. Macarena Pantaleon and Mr. Ozan Belkis for their work.

Also I would like to thank the members of the FCI Show judges commission for great cooperation.

My thanks also go to the FCI office, especially to Mr. Yves De Clercq for his help, and at the end to our representative from the FCI General Committee, Ms. Barbara Müller.

I'm looking forward to future successful work.

Bojan Mataković, DVM.
President of the FCI Show Commission

FCI UTILITY DOGS COMMISSION

Activity report

In 2024, 2 meetings of the commission took place, each in Vukovci in Croatia. In addition to general topics and a preview of the upcoming FCI World Championships, a new version of the International Testing Regulations was adopted, which was also approved by the FCI Board on September 8, 2024. A key aspect was to make access to the tests easier for beginners in the sports of companion dogs, tracking dogs and utility dogs. These test regulations come into force on January 1, 2025.

From April 9 to 14, the World Championship for Tracking Dogs was held in Linstow in Germany, in which 48 teams from 21 nations took part, 21 of which passed the test. The world champion came from Slovenia.

The World Championship for Utility Dogs took place in Vinkovci from September 23rd to 29th, 2024. This was the first time that this major event was held in Croatia. 133 dogs took part, of which 73 dogs achieved a positive result.

On November 30th and December 1st, an international judges' conference took place in Austria, in which 110 judges took part. The focus was on changes to the examination regulations so that the findings from this international conference could also be passed on to the judges nationally.

FCI HOOPERS COMMISSION

Activity report

Hoopers is a rather young canine sport that has gained popularity across Europe in the past decade. Hoopers combines fluid handling, distance control, and teamwork between dog and handler. In a changing parcours of hoops, barrels, short tunnels and gates the emphasis lies on excellence rather than speed as there is no time-keeping. Deriving from NADAC hoopers class in North America, hoopers evolved into a distinct sports of its own in Europe. Originally thought to be a low-impact alternative to agility, this may hold true for training where challenges can easily be adjusted to meet the needs of younger, older or even disabled dogs. Competitions however are reserved for healthy dogs who can execute tight turns and smooth changes of directions. The hoopers sport is very inclusive and accessible regarding the human part of the team. Thus, it thrives and attracts a growing number of dog sport enthusiasts. In some countries there are several hundred competitions per year already.

Therefore it was high time that the FCI embraces hoopers to promote, regulate, and unify the sport on an international level. The commission was established in August 2023.

The online kick-off event hosted by Yves de Clercq in November 2023 bringing the 12 delegates together, was followed by a face-to-face meeting in Frankfurt, Germany, in April 2024.

This inaugural personal meeting paved the way for a thriving cooperation. In an exceptionally harmonious and friendly atmosphere, all delegates united to promote their beloved sport.

Sandra Borchert, Germany, was elected president of the hoopers commission, assisted by Kati Wala-Bruin, Finland, as vice-president and Ari Valkhoff-Leclercq, the Netherlands, as secretary.

The objectives are clear:

1. Drafting International Regulations: The commission reviewed existing national rules to create a comprehensive and balanced global rulebook that preserves the sport's accessibility while ensuring competitive fairness.
2. Developing Unified Judging Guidelines: Establishing clear and objective judging criteria to be used across all sanctioned events, ensuring consistency in scoring and performance evaluation.
3. Engaging with Stakeholders: Consulting with national kennel clubs, trainers, handlers, and judges to refine regulations and encourage broad adoption.
4. Building Towards a World Championship: Establishing qualification pathways and ranking systems to introduce the first Hoopers World Championship within the next five years.

The hoopers commission is committed to achieve these goals. No less than 6 online meetings in 2024 bring us closer step by step.

Over the next year, the meeting time-table is even tighter, as the commission will focus on finalizing international rules and judging guidelines.

The commission invites collaboration from all stakeholders to ensure the successful growth and recognition of hoopers worldwide. Our overall priority is to position the hoopers sport alongside other major canine disciplines on the global stage while preserving its unifying character.

FCI TRUFFLE SEARCHING COMMISSION

Activity report

The FCI Truffle Searching Commission was created during the work of the FCI General Assembly in Geneva 21-22 August 2023 as a non-mandatory commission on proposals of SCC (France).

Austria, China, Denmark, France, Italy and later Germany and Switzerland joined the Commission immediately. The first meeting was called by the Executive Director Mr. Y. De Clercq, whom we must thank for his kind availability, on 22 January 2024 during which it was decided to hold a first meeting in person in Italy at the ENCI Headquarters in Milan set for 18 May 2024. Due to health problems for some and delays in flights due to bad weather for others, only Paolo Alessandrini (delegate for Italy) and Mrs. Ilaria Biondi De Ciabatti (Member of the FCI Executive Committee and Liaison Agent in our Commission) were present at the meeting at the ENCI. Given the poor attendance, it was decided at that time to postpone examining the items on the agenda and to set a new meeting at a later time, always convened by Paolo Alessandrini. Due to incompatibility problems between the email servers between the Delegates and the FCI, things dragged on until reaching a new in-person meeting on October 17, 2024 at the "Centro Turistico Valbonella", Bagno di Romagna (FC) Italy during and on side of the Italian Lagotto Club Gathering. In addition to the Liaison Agent Ilaria De Ciabatti (Peru), the following were present at this meeting: Paolo Alessandrini – (Member) Italy Dominique Cornet-Gougou (Member) – France (present via ZOOM), Jacqueline Egger (Member) – Switzerland, Dörthe Hostling (Member) – Denmark (present via ZOOM), Palma Rodler (Member) – Germany, Roswihta Szabo (Member) – Austria, as well as representatives of Norway, Sweden, The Netherlands as listeners. During this meeting, Mr. Paolo Alessandrini was elected as President, Mrs. Roswihta Szabo as Vice President, and Mrs. Palma Rodler as Secretary. It is firmly decided to maintain as such and well separated from the rest what concerns the Lagotto Romagnolo which has had a Working Standard and a Trial Regulation approved by the ENCI since 2006 and to which the FCI has granted the release of the CACIT since 2019. Since the ultimate goal of the Trials for the Lagotto Romagnolo is selection and genetic improvement, the activity carried out in the context of this breed goes beyond simple recreational-sporting objectives and the results obtained in all these years confirm what has been stated. The Trials for the Lagotto Romagnolo cannot therefore be mixed with those concerning other dog breeds not specifically for truffle hunting, for which at the moment there is no Standard aimed at this discipline. For the Lagotto Romagnolo, the rules that will govern the International Championship will have to be specified. In any case, the need to prepare a regulation to carry out Truffle Hunting Trials for all other dogs registered in the genealogical books and belonging to breeds not specifically aimed at this activity is highlighted. The operating space is widely available to everyone and therefore it will be the task of our Commission to create the possibility for these subjects to participate in the Trials with very specific methods to allow them to try their hand at this fascinating discipline. To achieve these goals, it was decided to start from the evaluation of the Regulations and the realities already in place in the individual Countries involved. As regards the programming of the next meetings, it was decided to plan one in remote mode on ZOOM on 17 December 2024 to begin evaluating the regulations and documents that will be shared by the individual members. At the same time, it was already decided that the next in-person meeting will take place on 08 October 2025, again at the VALBONELLA TOURIST CENTRE, LOCALITA' VALBONELLA 38, 47021 BAGNO DI ROMAGNA (FC) Italy. During the meeting held online on the ZOOM platform on December 17, 2024, in which all the Delegates were present, the current realities in the various Countries were initially examined, the attendance currently recorded at the Trials and a certain planning was started on what to prepare to get to the drafting of the regulations that we want to draw up. The timing referred to the few months of the year 2024 during which the Commission operated did not allow us to achieve many objectives set in any case, but the work of the Commission has always seen enthusiastic participation by all the Delegates masterfully followed by our Liaison Agent Ilaria De Ciabatti and I believe that it will be possible to lay the foundations of what we have set ourselves in the best way and in the shortest possible time. This is to get to the point of sharing this discipline in the highest possible number of Countries as soon as possible.

REPORT OF OUR ENGAGEMENT FOR CONTROLLING THE ACCOUNTS CLOSED
ON 31/12/2024 TO MEMBERS AT THE ORDINARY GENERAL MEETING
OF THE AISBL [INTERNATIONAL NON-PROFIT ORGANISATION] FEDERATION
CYNOLOGIQUE INTERNATIONALE

In accordance with our engagement described below and confirmed by our engagement letter of 29 January 2025, here is our report on the control of the financial statements for the fiscal year ended on 31 December 2024. Our task consists in the contractual control of financial statements.

We have inspected the financial statements of the AISBL Fédération Cynologique Internationale for the fiscal year ended on 31 December 2024, established on the basis of the accounting regulations applicable in Belgium. The balance sheet total is €5,516,602.16 and the profit and loss account shows a profit for the year of €92,828.32.

The management body is responsible for establishing financial statements that provide a true and fair view in accordance with the accounting regulations applicable in Belgium, and for setting up the internal controls it finds necessary for the establishment of financial statements free from material misstatements.

In accordance with our engagement letter, our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our inspection. Our inspection has been carried out in accordance with the standard applicable to the contractual control of small and medium enterprises, small (international) non-profit organisations and the reserved and shared legal tasks for small and medium enterprises and small (international) non-profit organisations and foundations. Under that standard, we are required to plan and carry out inspections to make sure that the financial statements do not contain any material misstatements. We have complied with all the ethics requirements that apply to the contractual control of financial statements in Belgium, including those relating to independence, as provided in said standard.

Our control entails the use of procedures such as those provided in the standard relating to the contractual control of small and medium enterprises and small (international) non-profit organisations and foundations and the reserved and shared legal tasks for small and medium enterprises and small (international) non-profit organisations and foundations, in order to collect audit evidence about the amounts and information provided in the financial statements. The choice of procedures used, including a limited assessment of the risk of the financial statements containing material misstatements, is made on the basis of the professional judgement of the chartered accountant. While carrying out that risk assessment, we have defined control procedures that are appropriate for the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control of the AISBL Fédération Cynologique Internationale.

We believe that the evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, in accordance with the provisions of the standard on the contractual control of small and medium enterprises and small (international) non-profit organisations and foundations and the reserved and shared legal tasks for small and medium enterprises and small (international) non-profit organisations and foundations, the enclosed financial statements provide a true and fair view of the assets and financial position of the organisation on 31 December 2024, and its results for the fiscal year ended on that date, in accordance with the accounting regulations applicable in Belgium.

This report may not be used for other purposes and its publication shall be limited to the use provided in the engagement letter.

For the attention of the FCI General Committee members

We want to inform you that, according to our Statutes, we have revised the financial activities of the Association. The review covered the operations carried out between 1st January and 31st December 2024.

It was performed by the following members of the Financial Commission:

- Helen TONKSON
- Gerson AYALA
- Ronnie NATIVIDAD (absent during the review)

in compliance with the minimum required quorum.

Our task was limited to the following:

- a) we have checked the accuracy, the integrity and the consistency of the accountancy and of the financial information of the Association;
- b) We have controlled the integrity of the way the information is processed;
- c) We have established that the budget approved for the fiscal year under review was used according to the activity plan;
- d) We have observed that the investments had been realized adequately;
- e) We have noted that the management to recover due amounts had been carried out properly.

Recommendation

- For the sake of transparency, we recommend changing the wording "other fees" into "other professional fees".
- For the sake of transparency, annotate the individual purchase invoices with VAT amounts and currency exchange rates (where it applies).
- Continue to explore the most profitable ways to invest the money on the savings account.

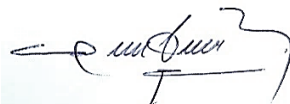

The members of the Commission want to express their congratulations on observing that the FCI had reached a positive result at the end of the fiscal year, i.e. 92.828, 32€.

On top of it, our thanks for the cooperation from Mr Y. De Clercq, Executive Director, and Mr L.Hendrickx, FCI accountant.

Yours sincerely

Helen TONKSON
